

We are against the change in FCC regulations that would increase the number of media outlets that could be owned by one business entity. We agree with those who feel this would lead to dominance by a few dominant organizations and would limit expression of the many points of view which enrich our country and make it different than any oth